ANDREW JACKSON CASH

Dedication

We of Cumberland University dedicate this volume of THE PHOENIX to that ardent modern, Andrew Jackson Cash, University Secretary, who has served in this capacity for nine years. To his unflagging interest in youth and to his outstanding administrative ability and sound judgment the University owes much of its phenomenal success and increasing influence.

Foreword

1

In compiling this edition of THE PHOENIX, we, the staff, have tried to picture in both words and photos part of the great work undertaken by the administration of Cumberland University, and to show that Old Cumberland, our University, stands in its magnificence a criterion for the unborn future.

In Memoriam

1

AMZI WADDELL HOOKER, one of Cumberland's sincerest friends, died Thursday, February 1, 1934. His business and public service connections were numerous and in each of these he left a host of friends. Mr. Hooker was an enthusiastic supporter of education and was for years identified closely with the work of Cumberland University. During the greater part of that time, he was a member of the Board of Trustees and for a number of years was the treasurer.

The faculty and student body join in recognition of the loyalty, simplicity, and sincere service of this splendid alumnus.

Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Cumberland, all hail!

Cherished by thy sons and daughters,
Sweet the memories throng
Round our hearts, Oh, Alma Mater,
As we sing this song.

PLANTATION PRAYER

BY EDD WINFIELD PARKS

The stars make moan, the forest chants, the earth
And humid air in diapason swell
The passion-song wherein creations tell
Of primal sorrow and the bane of birth.
To him that jungled Africa they sing
In name of Jesus Christ, who was the get
Of his remotest grandson, crying yet
For ecstasy or end of suffering.

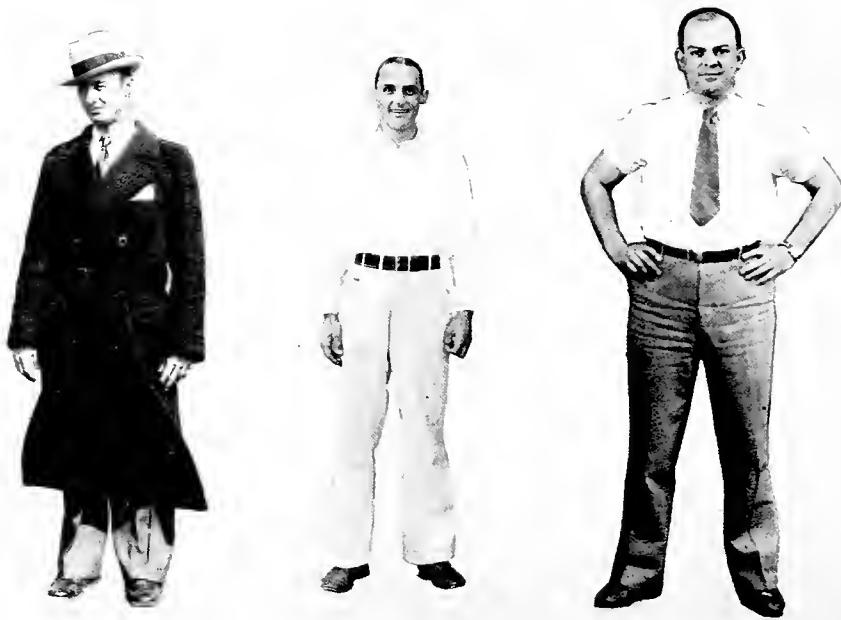

Up through a gulf of blackness beats the sound
Filling the topmost spaces, lapping round
His knees—and he, enfeebled with all years,
Signals the reigning scion, and to him,
As patiently he bears the Old Man's whim,
Babbles a meaning of the song he hears.

SPORTS

GARLAND A. MORROW Athletic Director

JOHN TROXLER, Girls' Coach

For four years Johnny has turned out creditable co-ed teams for Cumberland. This year he trained a small and fighting bunch of lassies; they were always flashy, fast, and fighting to the last minute. He had the confidence of each player, and they all fought for him. The thing he praised most was the spirit of his team which in itself speaks for his coaching.

GARLAND MORROW, Director of Athletics

The officials of Cumberland realized the wonderful ability of Coach Morrow as a coach, and gave the Athletic Department a most dependable and versatile man by appointing him Director of Athletics in the fall of 1933. Working with a freshman squad, he turned out a most creditable football team, whose true accomplishment of that year's work was shown in this year's team. Only those who know Coach know the suave, easy manner in which he tackles his work; he is a skillful worker, who instills a fighting spirit in the hearts of players.

EUGENE MCILWAINE, Assistant Coach

McIlwaine, whose feats and achievements as a player and coach are well known to every Cumberland student and follower, has proved to be a very valuable asset to the Bulldog coaching staff. Because of his remarkable coolness, his ability as a field general, and the possession of that "never say die" spirit, "Mac" is a most competent coworker of Coach Morrow.

DONNELL

SIMS

APPLEBY

LINDSEY DONNELL, Halfback

Little can be said of Lindsey's football ability that will not be a repetition of some other writer. Lindsey has been known to football fans throughout the State. He is the most spectacular player that has ever worn the Maroon and White of Cumberland. Aside from being the most versatile ball carrier, he was a good blocker and a deadly tackler. He rightfully deserves the honor bestowed upon him by his team mates as the most valuable player on the squad.

WOODROW WILSON, Quarterback

Small physically, but large mentally characterizes "Woody." He is quite consistent and adept in calling signals in an unmistakable and concise way. Most important of all he knows what plays to run at the critical moments of the games. "Woody" retained the personality which never failed to inspire his team mates.

SHANNON ROBISON, End

Shannon is the only player to be lost through graduation, which will no doubt be as big a blow to the team as one man can deal. He proved to be a reliable and consistent player. His consistency along with his idea of true sportsmanship won for him the admiration of the squad. Some school is going to have an outstanding coach if he decides to do this kind of work.

DAN SIMS, Guard

Sims came to Cumberland last year and has been one of the most dependable players on the squad. He has shown himself to possess both the ability and determination that are essential for any football player who is an asset to his team. We are expecting him to continue his good brand of playing next year.

CECIL APPLEBY, Center

Playing for his second year with the Bulldogs, Cecil exhibited ability which stamps him as a good athlete. He is well built and we have no fear that he will be able to hold his own on any football team. Being capable to play the guard position he saw service there besides being a reserve center.

MOEBES

AARON

WEST

GIALANELLA

JOHN MOEBES, Tackle

One of the most stubborn fighters ever to wear the maroon jersey, Moebes proved a big obstacle in every enemy's path. A fighting spirit in addition to his brawn are his most noteworthy attributes. His playing throughout the entire season was of the highest type, and his presence in the "Red Line" made that branch all the more powerful.

DAVID AARON, Tackle

"Dave" played his second year as a Bulldog. He was a most essential cog in the success of his team. "Dave" was a constant threat—possessed of the qualities of a born fighter, and versatility in getting down on punts and smearing enemy plays. His weight in the line was necessary many times, and at those times he used it to the best advantage. We are looking forward to a successful season next year with Aaron in the line.

ELDON LINDSAY, Halfback

Although this was Lindsay's first year at Cumberland, he showed that he was a good player by being in the starting line-up practically every time. He was by far the best punter on the team, an exceedingly good blocker, and a hard fighter with the true Bulldog spirit. With another year's experience he should be one of the best backs in the state.

WILSON WEST, Center

If one word were to be used in describing West that word would be "fight." Yes, most anyone will admit that there is no better fighter on the team. West is a good passer when on the offense, and even better when it comes to smearing a play. The cry from opposing backs to "Stop that Center" was heard in almost every game, and true it is that his tackles many times threw the opposition for a loss. Let's be there again next year, West.

MIKE GIALANELLA, End

An all-state man from New Jersey—Mike lived up to all expectations. He filled the left end position exceedingly well. Throughout the year his offensive play was good, but his defensive work was brilliant. More than once he "waded through" three or four interferences to throw the ball carrier for a loss. With Mike's ability and love for the game, Coach Morrow will have no worry about the man to fill left end for the next three years.

LEWIS

McCLUEN

BONAVITA

ORR

BUTLER

ROBERT LEWIS, End

Bob was one of the most valuable players, not only because of his brilliant playing but also because of his consistency. He was a terror to enemy end plays, and death when a pass came his way. A great defensive player, but a greater offensive man. His ability was well demonstrated in the Murfreesboro game.

LLOYD McCLUEN, End

Although he has had only a small amount of experience, McCluen shows that he has plenty of football ability. His good nature and willingness to try hard is an asset to any player. "Kid" has the beginning of a good end, for he is a deadly tackler and can cover punts nicely. He played great ball in the Lambuth game. With more experience he will develop into an excellent wingman during the next three years.

JERRY BONAVITA, Quarterback

In spite of the fact that he had a great deal of tough luck in regard to injuries, Jerry probably exhibited some of the most spectacular playing shown by any member of the team. He combined the ability to run the team intelligently, and at the same time perform in good style the duties of carrying the ball. Anyone who saw the Hiwassee game will long remember the style of playing he exhibited at that time.

VANCE ORR, Tackle

The playing of this linesman has improved since he started in the early fall. When called upon to take either tackle position he filled it well. We recall that his playing during the Alabama game was exceedingly good. We are expecting great things from him in the future.

HOWARD BUTLER, Guard

Through his determined spirit Butler has become almost a perfect guard. No one could tell when he was coming out of the line as an interferer, but the players whom he blocked knew he was coming from somewhere. Too little credit is usually given the guard who plays such a vital part in the game; however, there is ample proof of his outstanding ability. Butler captained the Lambuth game and gave a good account of himself.

THOMPSON

LOOMIS

HIGH

KNOX

JAMES THOMPSON, Manager

"Jimmy" came to Cumberland last year with the reputation of being a great football player, but was unable to play because of a knee injury received in the early fall. This year Jimmy was chosen manager, and he has proved to be a capable and efficient one. Here's hoping that he gets the tricky knee in shape by next year.

BUCK LOOMIS, Halfback

A freshman, but tough and fast—Buck was always good for yardage through the line. A plunger of no mean ability, a clean gentleman on the field, and a natural fighter. Always on his toes in both offense and defense, his conscientious work brought results.

ELISHA HIGH, Guard

Another freshman to uphold the traditions of the "Red Line." Having a profound love for the game and being a determined fighter from the beginning to the end, he has been an asset to the team. High will be back next year and will undoubtedly gain greater recognition in the future.

DON KNOX, Assistant Manager

Don was always ready and willing to do anything that he could for the team. The whole squad agrees that the equipment was kept in fine shape. Don was always full of fun and contributed much to the mental attitude of the team.

LIST

PRICHARD

FLOWERS

McCLAIN

TUCKER

MARTHA LIST, Guard

Sturdy, hard-fighting, untiring—that's Martha. She hawked her forward like a cat; her eye is always on the ball, and her following-up seldom gives the opponents a second shot at the basket. An all-round athlete who will aid C. in her future basketball victories.

EVELYN PRICHARD, Center

Evelyn's personality, love of the game and determination always influenced the team for good. She was a great floor worker, and played the pivot position exceedingly well. Her long distance shooting thrilled the audience and she seldom missed a free throw. Evelyn will furnish the nucleus for a good team next year.

SARAH FLOWERS, Forward

Sarah ended her college basketball career in a blaze of glory. She seldom led in scoring honors, but she was always fighting and her willingness to pass and work for the team stamped her as one to be valued. Sarah played hard, clean basketball, and her fine spirit and excellent work will be sorely missed next year.

KATHERINE McCLAIN, Guard

There was not a more consistent player on the team. She is a hard-fighting player and her defensive work is almost impregnable. Her fine playing has won her three years of success and honor. We're looking forward to a great season next year, "Red."

MARY ETHEL TUCKER, Forward

The main threat of every offensive attack. Always smiling, always fighting, she displayed at all times the best of sportsmanship. Her ability to pass, work the floor, and score made her spectacular in every game. She leaves a place on the co-ed team that will be hard to fill.

THE PHOENIX

BRYAN

DORA BRYAN, Guard

A highly praised high school star who more than lived up to her reputation. Her smallness of stature was not a handicap when it came to breaking up passes and dribbles. One of the fastest players on the floor, she always received her share of hard knocks but came up smiling and fighting.

SARAH SMITH, Forward

Sarah came from the high school with an enviable record, and it did not take her long to prove her ability. She was very adept and expert at passing, and an extraordinary shot from close-up positions. An admirable fighting spirit and wonderful teamwork make Sarah outstanding.

ALICE DYAL, Guard

Another first year player who cinched a place in the starting line-up of the last few games of the season. Her height certainly proved an asset in the Martin College game. She has spirit, ability, and determination, and will be a most valuable player next year.

MARY RAMBO, Forward

Playing for her first year on the team Mary displayed ability and spirit that will be useful in her remaining years. Nonchalant and easy-going, but an accurate shot and good passer. With a little more speed Mary would make one of the best of forwards.

VESTA TUTHILL, Guard

One of the most dependable players on the team. Vesta covered the floor well, and was one of the hardest fighters on the squad. With her determination and a little more experience, she will be a valuable asset in future games.

PREHODA

JENNINGS

DAVE PREHODA, Forward

Dave's shooting has featured every game, and this is the fourth year that he has been high point man. His hand skill, dribbling, and ability to emerge from a scrimmage carrying the ball, made him one of the most desirable members of the team. He has made an enviable record, and his place will be hard to fill.

LYNDON JENNINGS, Guard

In the very first game Jennings illustrated that he was a capable and steady player. He excels in getting the ball from the backboard and in dribbling through his opponents. He possessed a dangerous left-hand shot that few opponents were able to guard. The loss of his ability and fighting spirit will be sorely missed by the team next year.

SHANNON ROBISON, Center

The tip-off was always Shannon's; he was a giant on the defense, and the steadiest player on the squad. Hard fighting and clean, Shannon is one of the best players ever to perform at Cumberland. His loss to the team will leave a gap which Coach Morrow will find hard to fill.

LINDSEY DONNELL, Forward

As on the gridiron—Lindsey showed that he was always consistent and often a brilliant player. This is his first year on the team and as he plays more his ability grows. Conscientious playing and true sportsmanship characterize Lindsey.

ROBERT LEWIS, Guard

Bob played good ball throughout the season, and it mattered little whether he was playing guard or forward. He was all over the floor, breaking up passes, and putting a crimp in every attack of his opponents. Bob always gave his best, and his best is beyond question.

BARBOUR

BUTLER

BRICE HALL, Forward

Hall is a sub that can fill in as a substitute and never falter. He is especially to be commended for his faithfulness and hard work. The true accomplishment of this year's work should show itself in the games next year.

THOMAS PROVEN, Forward

A newcomer to the team who proved most valuable. Proven has the knack of making snappy backhand passes and accurate one-hand shots. He is not surpassed for fight, determination, and ability.

DAVE AARON, Guard

The abundant natural resources in the shape of a great physique and fighting spirit which have characterized Aaron on the gridiron make him a great player. He is a neat passer, and the best man to play the pivot position. Aaron is an all-round good player and has two more big years ahead of him.

FRED BARBOUR, Center

Another newcomer to the team this year, usually jumped center and immediately dropped back to one of the guard positions. This probably made his playing less conspicuous but none the less important. His height is an asset in both positions. "Chink" is a player that will give the opponents plenty of trouble next year.

HOWARD BUTLER, Manager

Butler's great interest in athletics helped him to be a very efficient manager. Ever smiling, even in the face of defeat of his cohorts, he is the ideal Cumberland follower.

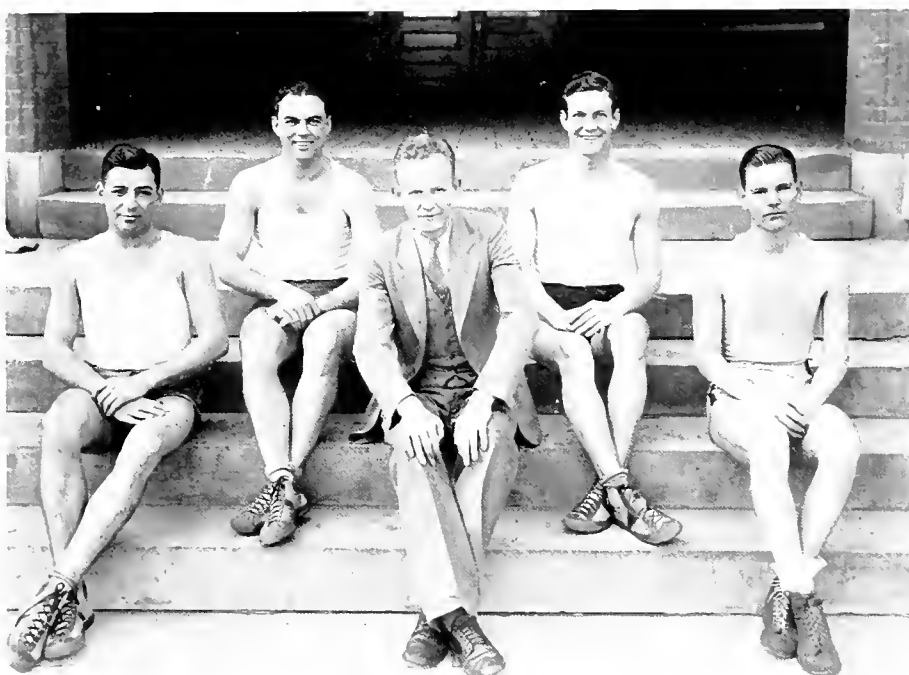

SENIORS
INTERCLASS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Second Row: ALCOTT, MARTIN

Squad: PREHODA, ROBISON, JENNINGS, ALCOTT, T. MARTIN, J. MARTIN, BASSETT

With five varsity men, the seniors had a team which would have given any team a good fight. However, the usual amount of interest and cheering was manifested when they met the sophomores in the finals.

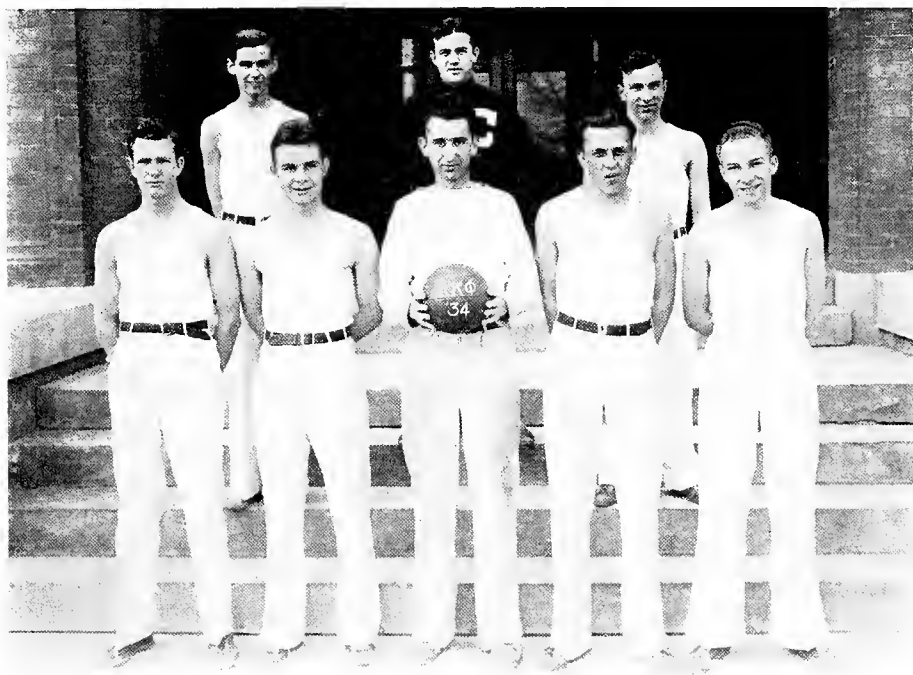

JUNIOR LAWYERS INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Second Row: SPARKS, WILKINS

Squad: CROW, BATES, SMITH, SPARKS, WILKINS, EVANS, POSTON, FELMAN, CARDWELL, WHARTON, CONATSER

The junior lawyers won high honors in a lively intramural basketball tournament. The final game was played between the junior lawyers and Lambda Chi's. True sportsmanship was manifested by all teams that participated.

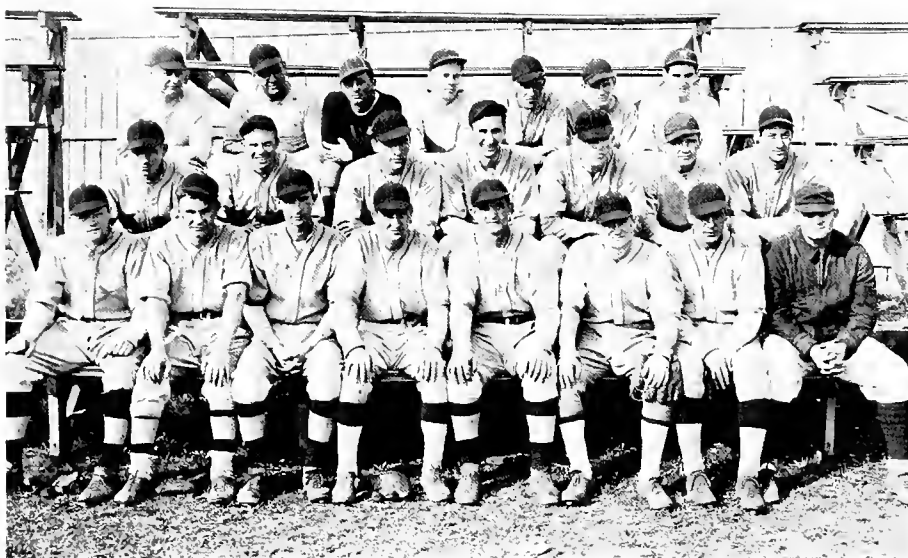

D. K. P.'S
INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONS

Second Row: PRICE, WILSON, DeBENNETTO

In order to broaden athletics, volleyball teams were organized and much interest was manifested in the tournament. The D. K. P.'s showed much teamwork, and won in the finals over the Bachelor Club. The S. A. E.'s were winners in the consolation group.

BASEBALL TEAM

Second Row: HALL, EVANS, BONAVITA, COSMAI, CARTER, APPLEBY, GIALANELLA

Third Row: POTTER, RHODES, THOMAS, MANNING, COX, GAMBLE, PRICE

Not since 1931 have the Bulldogs performed on the diamond, but this year's team promises to rank high with small college circles in the South. Coach McIlwaine is efficient and determined, and instills the spirit of teamwork into the minds of the players; he has perfected a squad that will give any team a fight.

The first three games were won by good scores from David Lipscomb and Jarman Shoe Company. The schedule promises games with such teams as Vanderbilt, Bethel College, and T. P. I.

TENNIS CLUB

For the first time in recent years Cumberland is to have an intercollegiate tennis team. Under the leadership of Dr. Thompson, coach, teams are to be selected. Games scheduled include David Lipscomb, T. P. I., East Tennessee Teachers, and University of Kentucky.

GOLF CHAMPIONS

Bill Manning of Mattituck, L. I., freshman in the Literary school, copped the golf tournament by defeating Stonehouse in the finals with the score eight up and six holes to go.

The consolation tournament was won by Howard Butler, of the Law school, who defeated Bassett in the finals by the score of four up with three to go. Foshee was low medalist with the score of 34 made in the qualifying round.

TOREADORS

Second Row: HAYES, BASSETT, McCARTER, BOMAR

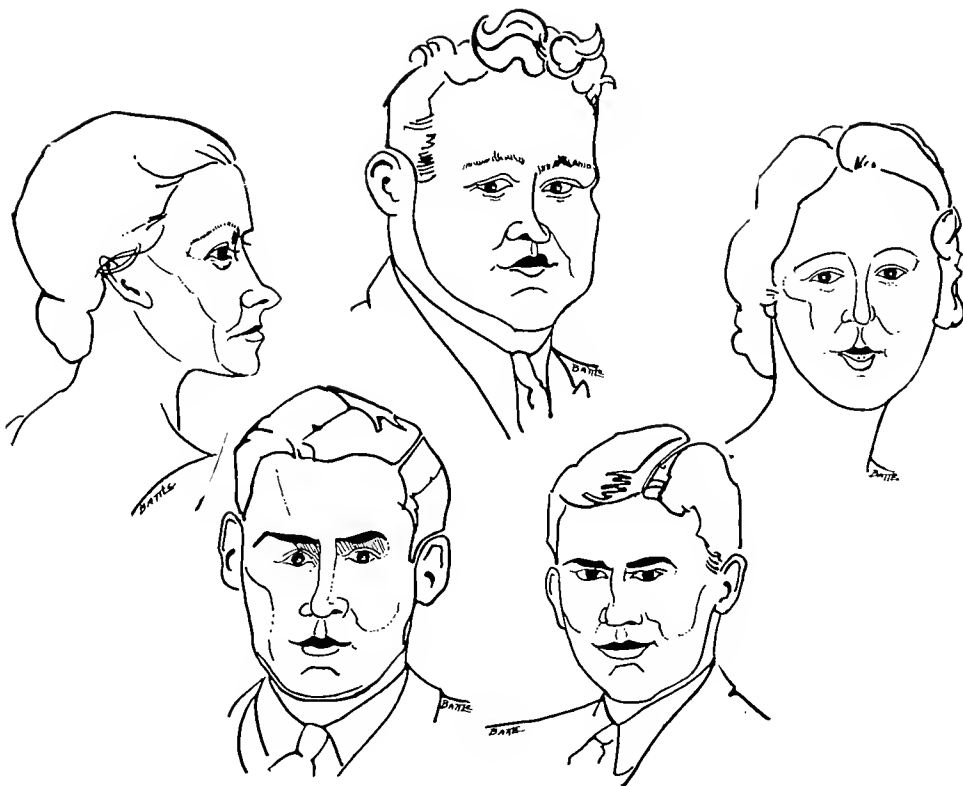

Third Row: ROSS, DECKER, WEEMS, PRICE, COX

There is nothing that will encourage an athletic team more than the united support of the students expressed in hearty cheers during a game. This support is fully recognized as a part of such contests.

The work of the "Toreadors" has been most commendable. It was through their efforts that the best cheering which was possible was obtained during the past season.

CUMBERLAND GLEE CLUB

For the past two years a mixed Glee Club has replaced Cumberland's former Male Club. During these two years it has been under the capable direction of Mrs. Theora Ferrell, head of Cumberland's Voice Department. At present the club is composed of eighteen members with Dr. Thompson as accompanist. Practices are held weekly. Its members receive valuable training in group and solo work. Besides participating in chapel programs, the Glee Club presents a recital each spring which is included in the Commencement Calendar. Also the Glee Club and its members furnish much of the special music during Cumberland's Spiritual Emphasis Week.

LIFE SERVICE GROUP

Previous to this year, the Life Service Group membership was limited to those students who had dedicated their lives to some form of full-time Christian service. This year, however, our membership has been extended to those who have a vital interest in extending The Kingdom here on the campus.

The Young Men's Christian Association on the Cumberland campus is organized to promote higher Christian ideals, as well as to encourage more wholesome fellowship between the students. The importance of the Cumberland association is not only recognized on the local campus, but frequently receives recognition from the state and Southwide leaders.

This past year under the leadership of Henry La Raia the Y. M. C. A. has enlarged its field of duty. Besides its regular religious duties the Y. M. has co-operated with the Y. W. C. A. in various matters throughout the year. The biggest undertaking of the Y. M. and the Y. W. was the production of a show in order to raise money to send delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference in August, 1934.

The officers of the Association were: First semester, James Orr, President; Roy Smith, Vice President; Henry La Raia, Secretary. Second semester: Henry La Raia, President; Vance Orr, Vice President; Harold Stephens, Secretary; and Professor Donnell, Faculty Advisor.

The Y. M. was the winner of the boy's first Annual Stunt Night.
